

EUROPEAN CONFERENCE

“Towards a European Student eID” Recent developments in the MyAcademicID Project

20-21 Nov 2019

Humboldt University - Auditorium

*Jacob-and-Wilhelm-Grimm Center
Geschwister-Scholl-Str 1-3, 10117 Berlin*

Draft Program

Wednesday, November 20, 2019

- 11:00 Registration opens
- 12:00 Coffee and snacks
- 13:00 Opening and introduction - Why a European Student eID?
- Welcome by Achim Meyer auf der Heyde, DSW Secretary General [5 min]
 - João Bacelar, Executive Director, European University Foundation: Opening and introduction [5 min]
 - Vanessa Debiais-Sainton, Directorate General for Education, Youth, Sport and Culture (DG EAC): The European Student Card Initiative - a new vision for student mobility? [10 min]
 - Anne Bajart, Directorate-General for Communications Networks, Content and Technology (DG CONNECT): Towards a European Student e-Card: how to support student mobility and exchange of information in Europe [10 min]
 - Davide Vagheti, eduGAIN (to be confirmed) [10 min]
 - Q&A with the audience: Why a European Student eID - current use cases and future developments [20 min]
- 14:00 MyAcademicID: Connecting services, building trust, empowering students
Presentation by Christos Kanellopoulos, GEANT [30 min]
- The road and challenges ahead
 - Milestones and first results: connections between eduGAIN, eIDAS and ESC
 - Use cases and mobility scenarios: identification, authentication and access to online services
 - Q&A [30 min]

- 15:00 Coffee Break
- 15:30 Parallel workshops to collect the comments, ideas and knowledge of the audience
- WS 1: Political and legal challenges – how to design it
→ target group: HEI leadership and decision makers
 - WS 2: Technical Issues – how to implement it
→ target group: IT specialists and related projects
- 17:15 João Bacelar, EUF: Wrapping up and closing remarks for Day 1
- 17:30 Free time
- 18:00 Campus Card Berlin (optional visit): The Erasmus virtual student card in action (Humboldt University Grimm Centre) - tbc
- 19:30 Networking reception for all participants at Coffeebar c.t
Unter den Linden 6, 10117 Berlin
- [20:30 Dinner for consortium partners & speakers - invitation only - venue to be confirmed]

Thursday, November 21, 2019

- 8:30 Welcome coffee and registration
- 9:00 Panel: The role of technology in the future of student mobility – friends or foes? [the technical challenge - 45 min]
- Electronic student data – a promising future for student mobility?
 - Identification and Authentication: Authenticate locally – access globally
 - Privacy and security – Are there reasons to worry?
 - Panel with input from:
 - Anne Bajart, Directorate-General for Communications Networks, Content and Technology (DG CONNECT)
 - Christos Kanellopoulos, GÉANT: Challenges in the technical implementation
 - European Students' Union (representative to be confirmed)
 - João Bacelar, European University Foundation
- Q&A and discussion with the audience [45 min]
- 10:30 Coffee break

- 11:00 Panel: Seamless authentication for smoother mobility: strengthening the European student status [the services challenge – 45 min]
- (from the point of view of key stakeholders – taking into account the reports from the workshops)
 - How can a European Student eID for Higher Education improve student mobility?
 - How can an eID help strengthen the student status at the European level?
 - What are the key services student should be able to access?
 - What are the benefits for students and higher education institutions?
 - Panel with input from:
 - Graeme Robertson-Liersch (invited), Directorate General for Education, Youth, Sport and Culture (DG EAC): Political Perspectives
 - Jean-Paul Roumegas, European Student Card: Service providers' perspective
 - Tamás Molnár, Humboldt-University Berlin: HEI perspective
 - European Students' Union: the student perspective (representative to be confirmed)
- Q&A [45 min]
- 12:30 Closing Remarks
- João Bacelar, EUF: MyAID: what's next?
Announcement of seven national workshops (dates and places to be confirmed by project partners)
- 13:00 Coffee and snacks, departure of participants
- 15:30-18:00 Optional Cultural programs
- A: walking tour about the history of higher education in Berlin
 - B: visit of Berlin wall memorial on Brunnenstrasse
 - C: guided tour of Museum of German History -From the Weimar Republic to the Nazi Regime (1918-1945)

